

Biography

MASTER ARCH. IPEK YARALIOĞLU

She was born on 30 October in Nicosia KöşklüÇiftlik. She completed her primary education at Şehit Ertuğrul Primary School, secondary school at Ruso Secondary School and high school education at Nicosia Turkish High School.

She completed is Architecture education at Near East University, Faculty of Architecture and graduated with high honors. Since October 2016, she started working as a full-time lecturer at Near East University, Faculty of Architecture. In 2018, she completed her Master's Thesis under the title of "Concept of Conservation in Historical Cities and the Effects of Tourism-Induced Changes on the Urban Texture: Morphological Change Analysis Field Study in Kyrenia Ancient Port and Its Surroundings" at the Near East University Institute of Science and Technology Architecture Program. She started PhD education in 2018 at Near East University and her doctoral education continues. Currently; She works full-time as a Lecturer at Near East University, Faculty of Architecture. Throughout her academic career, she has participated in various Architecture and Education Symposiums, Conferences, Congresses, etc. Participated in organizations. She served as a Jury Member in various Architectural Project Competitions.

In 2021, she was elected to the KTMMOB Chamber of Architects Board of Directors and continues to be a board member.